TEN YEARS PAST ...

The decade of the sixties marked by conflict, militancy, demonstrations, and assassination has placed new emphasis upon the ever current problem of individual responsibility, rights, and privileges in his association with others.

Democracy and a system of free enterprise has, throughout history, provided the most effective vehicle for stable interaction of the individual and his society. Your education has been geared and presented in a democratic framework to provide you with the tools for continual individual growth within a society of free people. The development and use of these tools will determine the success you achieve in reaching the goals you establish.

Coronation

The homecoming parade this year was held on Thursday evening. In a pep meeting Friday, we roared the Warriors on to victory. After a great football game, a dance was held in the new gym to crown the 1968 Homecoming Queen, Miss Kathy Neece.

The five girls are chosen from the senior class, and then the queen is elected by an all-school vote.

Junior Class, 1st place

All classes and clubs are invited to enter floats in the homecoming parade. This year's theme was "The Year of 1968." Each organization must come up with an idea for a float pertaining to the theme. No more than eight dollars may be spent on the entries. Floats were being built from Saturday to Wednesday evening. Each float was to have its number on each side. The best one won a prize of $10.00.

This year the parade was held in the evening, instead of after school. As usual, the band led the parade, when they reached town they stood in front of the reviewing stand and played as the parade marched past the stand. This was one of the best homecoming parades Casey has ever seen.

National Honor Society

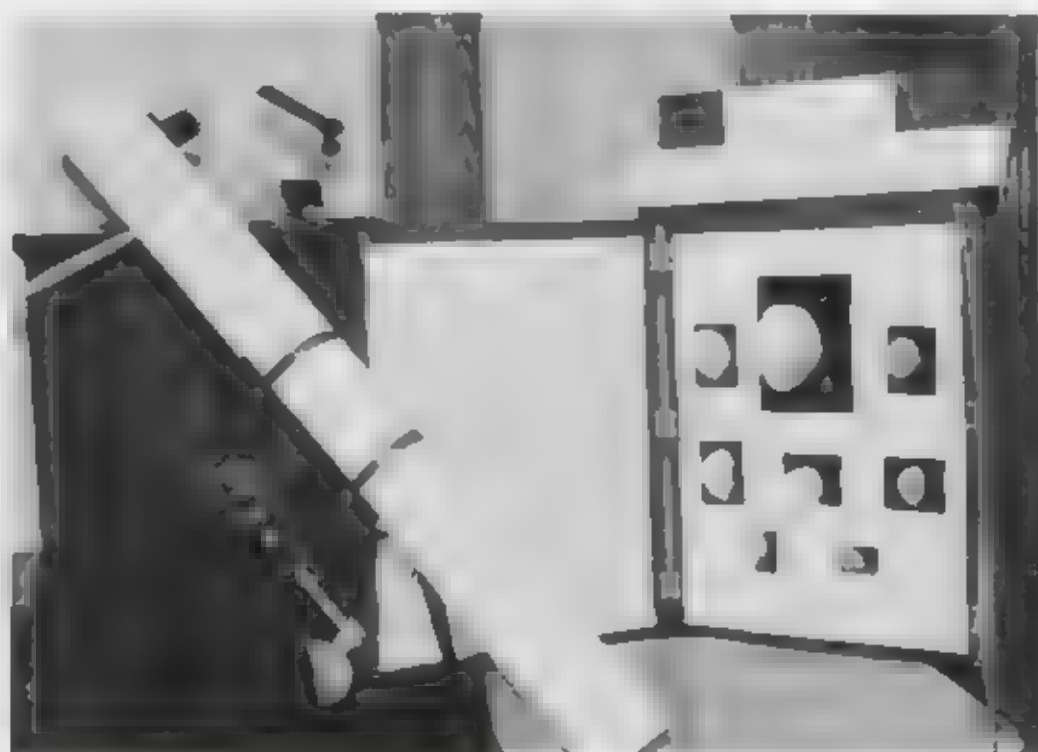

Induction of new members for 1969.

MAX BURKYBILE, Pres.

The induction of new members of the National Honor Society was held February 28, 1969, in Arts Hall. Rev. Gaylord Green gave the invocation which was followed by speeches from the existing members: Tom Jones - "Leadership," Donna Pogue - "Scholarship," Gayle Green - "Character," and Carol Blawver - "Service." Patty Markwell read the poem, "The Master's Touch," and Elizabeth Huddleston explained the NHS emblem. It was an impressive ceremony.

Science Fair

LUNAR PHOTOGRAPHY, the winning project was by David Winters.

“State Fair”

The National Thespian Chapter of Casey High School presented as its fall play, “State Fair,” a sparkling comedy about a family in Texas attending the annual state fair. The family ran into many problems, from a prize pig, or a jar of pickles, to a love-sick daughter and son. But as all good stories, the plot turns out well for everyone. This was one of the first plays presented by our Thespians that included singing, a cappella.

“State Fair” was a complete success, and laid the steps for future musicals.

The Skeleton Walks

For their spring play, the Casey Freepath presented "The Skeleton Walks," on April 11 and 12. The mystery comedy involved a family dilemma, as a haunted house, already occupied by a mad doctor. The play introduced many new actors, and was considered a success. David Dunn and Charlotte Howe were elected best actor and actress of the year for their roles in this performance. A surprise scene, heightened the play, with the doctor's housekeepers turning out to be secret detectives. The cast of both the fall and spring plays would like to take this time to thank Mr. Robert Thomas for his fine job of directing.

Prom '69

“Three Coins in a Fountain”

The Junior-Senior Prom for 1969 was “Three Coins in a Fountain,” a well-attended affair. The center of attraction of the floor was a fountain, ten feet in diameter. The tables were separated from the dance floor by green hedges and white columns. Vases of colorful paper flowers were put on each table, along with white rock glass candies and mint-filled miniature wafers. The main colors were dark green, blue, and yellow.

Honors Day

The Thomas C. Tade award is given to a senior who is enrolled in the business course. She must be able to type at sixty-five words per minute with five errors or less. She also must be able to take shorthand at 120 words a minute. This award was won by Debbie Miller.

Gayle Green was given the Mary E. Guernsey award. It is awarded to the senior who plans to teach school after graduating from college. This award is actually a $200 scholarship. It is given to the senior who is most promising in the field of teacher education.

All seniors in the Girls Athletic Association won recognition.

Bill Mills was given a special lame staff award. It was new this year for ~~him~~ who worked extra hard.

Tom Jones received the ~~own~~ Music award. It was for his outstanding devotion to the music department of this school. He has excelled in both band and choir these past four years.

Margie Icenogle received recognition as our Warrior these past years.

Nancy Beasley, senior, and Connie Stone received Future Homemakers of America awards.

Senior Trip

"Chicago"

Museum of Science and Industry

Relaxation!

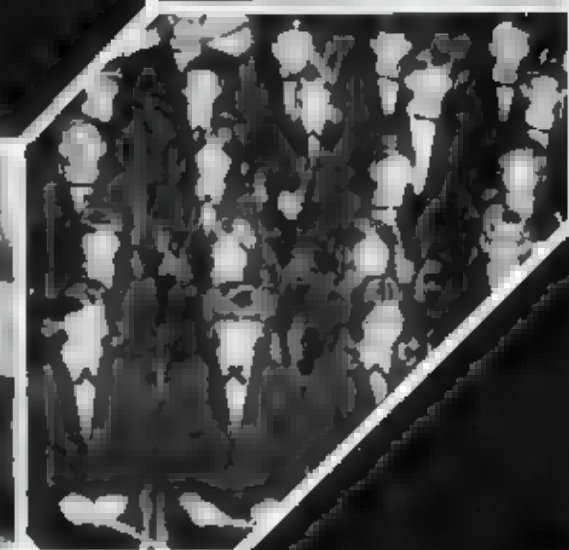

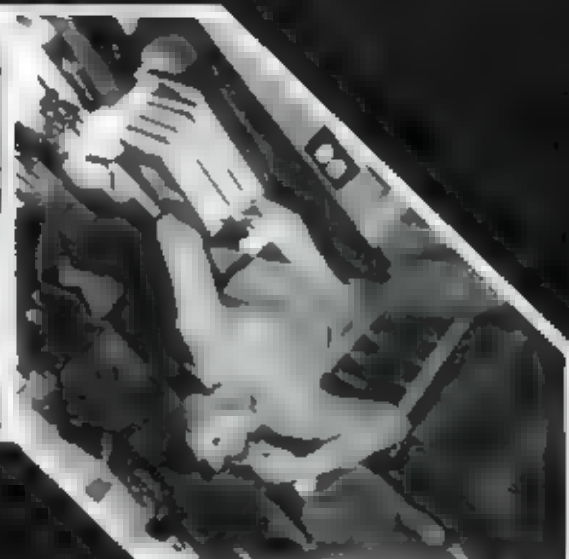

The Class of 1969, a little sleepy but anxious, left for Chicago May 28, at 5:30 A.M. The two buses were loaded with clothes, luggage, coolers, food, and, most of all, the class and their chaperons. The more intelligent kids tried to sleep, but the rest stayed awake and had a good "ole" time. We eventually reached Chicago around 11:00 A.M. after a few minor stops. Our first tour of the day was to explore the Museum of Science and Industry which we all found very interesting. Most of the class brought a sack lunch and ate in the park or on the buses.

We all enjoyed a fascinating view of Chicago from the top of the Prudential Building. Some of us were very interested in the building, so we rode the breath-taking elevator to every floor and to the top and back.

We found Old Town the most interesting of all. We were all kind of wondering at first what it would be like, but we were bothered by no one. Some of us especially enjoyed the little, quaint shops where one could purchase anything imaginable. The wax museum was very real to life and it made one feel strange.

After leaving Old Town, we were tired and decided it was time to refreshen ourselves for the evening. We all ate our evening meal in the Palmer House, but had two choices where to eat. That night we went to a play, "A Girl in My Soup," or a movie "Sweet Charity."

After enjoying a long hard day, we arrived home around 4:30 A.M. tired and sleepy. Our senior trip was a success!

Future Teachers of America

The Future Teachers of America organization is composed of students with an interest in teaching as a career. One of the various activities of the club is speakers at meetings, who give enlightened information of teaching as a profession. Also the students are given a chance to develop and exercise their teaching skills in the management of a classroom in the grade schools.

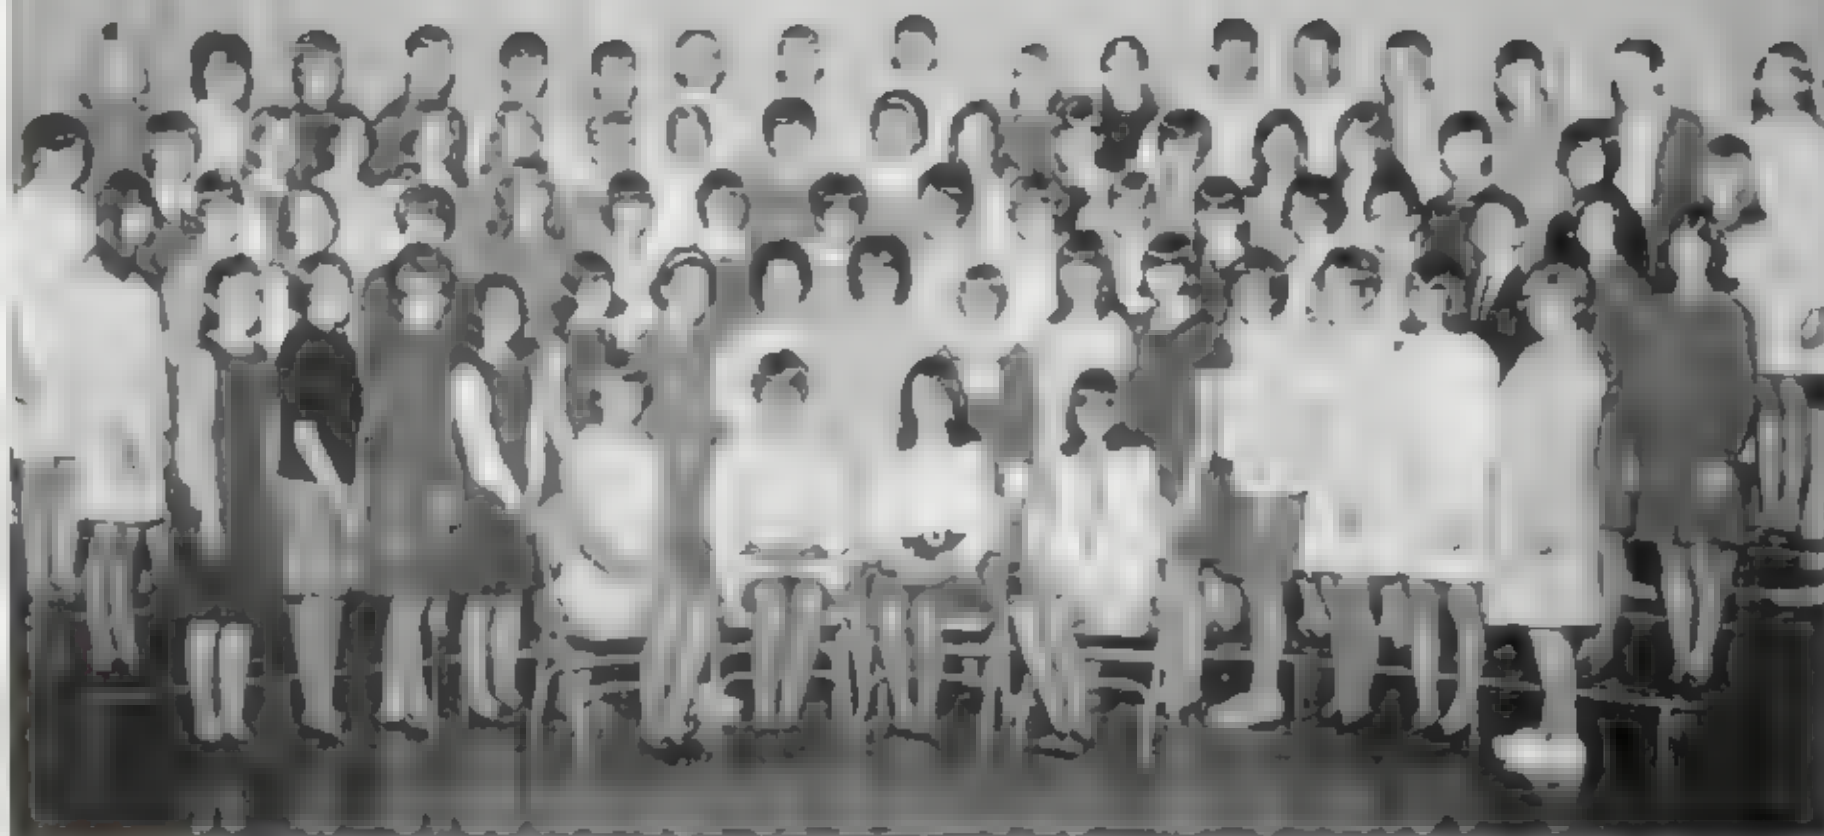

The Thespians is an organization consisting of students with an interest in dramatics. These future young actors and actresses present two plays each school year. Members are given points for their hard work and effort either as a cast member or for committee work. Upon earning points, students are initiated as groundlings and become Thespians when a goal of ten points is earned.

Warrior Football '68

Casey Beats Charleston 14-9

This year Casey's football team only had five seniors playing, although the varsity was well rounded out with underclassmen. After three-straight losses, the boys played great football, and won the next three, topping that off by beating Charleston fourteen to nine in a grueling game. The varsity did have a good year, so let's support them even more next year.

The Warriors at Practice

Basketball in Action 68-69

This has been a building year in basketball for the Casey Warrior varsity squad. Although height was lacking, the spirit of the team was high. Next year's team will be even better and will insure winning even more games.

Cross Country

The Cross Country Team put in a great deal of time and hard running last fall, but it was well worth it. The boys did considerably well, under the direction of coach Jim Hallihan. A new sport in Casey High, our team has come out on top with a good season.

The track team did a great job this year, under the coaching of Mr. Parrish and Mr. Hallihan. There was a good turn-out of eager boys, and the team ended with a 3-3 season in dual and triangular meets.

Tennis '69

Casey's tennis team had a little trouble getting its stability this year, but it has worked hard, and prepared next year's team with some good boys. Despite the best efforts, the team won no games. Their coach, Mr. Traub, gave the boys some helpful hints and training, and deserves much praise.

G o l f '6 9

The Casey golf team held its own throughout the season for 1969, ending up with a 7 win, 6 loss total. Returning lettermen were: Dave Bertram, Don Logue, Randy Parker, and Dave Tranberg. The new coach was Mr. Erwin.

Jr. Varsity Cheerleaders

The Cheerleaders of Casey High are an example of some of the leaders around our school. They have helped to promote school spirit by doing cheers and skits at pep sessions; and by yelling for our boys at the games. Last summer the girls attended a summer camp at Bloomington, where they learned ideas for new cheers.

In Memoriam

RICHARD LEE FREEMAN

In memory of Richard Lee Freeman,
July 31, 1950 - August 15, 1968

The loss of Rick has been a tragedy to the Senior class as well as the entire student body. He was close to many, and friendly to all. "... he is not dead, but sleeping." Luke 8:52

Farewell Class of '69

The senior class of 1969 has been very active during the last four years. The class used their freshman year to become familiar with the high school facilities and faculty members.

As sophomores, they worked faithfully to raise money for their coming prom. Projects included a bake sale, a slave day in the fall, and a homemade ice cream social in May.

The junior year was spent organizing, preparing, and presenting the '68 prom. Prom theme was "South of the Border," and all who attended retain many happy memories of the impressive occasion.

As seniors the class chose blue and yellow as their class colors, the yellow rose as their class flower, and the class motto was, "Few doors are closed in America, save those we close ourselves."

Senior activities kept the class busy during their final year at Casey High. The seniors sponsored, participated in, and won the winter olympics, sold Christmas cookies during the holidays, and sponsored two slave days. The proceeds from these projects were used to finance the senior trip to Chicago on May 28th.

While in Chicago, the class visited the Museum of Science and Industry, the Prudential Building, Old Town, and later that evening attended either a play or a movie. It was a group of tired, but happy and satisfied seniors who, on the night of May 29th, walked down the aisle to receive the diploma which they had earned after twelve long years of hard work.

A Tribute to a Great Teacher

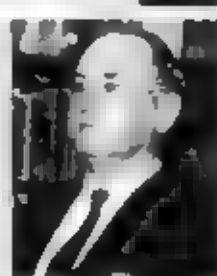

This is in memory of Willard Gantz, a former teacher all of us at Casey High have known, respected, and had as a Science Teacher. In his six years of teaching here we hope we gave him something as he gave us many wonderful things to remember. He helped and encouraged students with their projects in the Science Fair and was an inspiration to many of us. "The one thing in the world, of value, is the active soul."
